

OILERS WIN FROM SAINTS; JOPLIN LOSES TO DES MOINES

TULSA ONE GAME BEHIND LEADERS

Locals Play a Great Reversal from Monday's Contest—Bayne Is Effective.

DES MOINES HERE TODAY

Oilers Oppose Iowa Club; Joplin Meets Saints; Sioux City Comes Next.

By CHARLES L. REILLY.
Reversing the game of the day before, which appealed to the home fans about as much as the sensation that comes the morning after the night before, Spencer Abbott's Oilers yesterday banded their way to an 8 to 2 victory over the St. Joe aggregation at McNauly park, thereby taking three out of four from the invaders.

By winning while Joplin was being shut out by Des Moines, the Oilers stand only one game behind the leaders as Des Moines comes today to open a three-game series, while St. Joe moves up to Joplin. Tulsa's prayers are that the Saints will be as fortunate in Joplin as they were unfortunate here.

Saints Score in First.

For the third consecutive afternoon it looked as if Tulsa might drive his athletes through to a second win and thus draw the series, for they leaned on against the offerings of Bayne with much more certainty than did the Omahicans when they faced the recruit, but while he was uneasy throughout and inclined to wildness, he managed to scatter the binges of the opposition so that they did no harm after the first inning.

The game set, firing for the visitors, however started uneasy and remained uneasy during the inning and one-third he remained on the mound. Then Caporal, who succeeded him, was steady by jerks and back of both of them the support was very similar to that which was accorded the martyred Thirty-fifth over there.

Dolan Hits Home Run.
At the beginning of the game, Krikham, Brubaker shot a solid single into center and he galloped on to second when Brokaw permitted the drive to bound past him to the centerfield fence. He was run down between second and third when in a playful mood he got too far from safety and O'Brien turned him away from second by a quick peek to Wulfil. There were two down when Kirkham grounded out to Dunn. Krikham, then, was the wrong way when he sent one of Bayne's benders floating over the long leftfield barrier, the first time this stout ever had been staged at McNauly park.

No sooner had this happened than Butcher drew four wide ones, stole second and registered on Connally's single. The damage was stopped, however, when Davis got under Mueller's high fly.

While Tulsa managed to get three on during their first batting session it was not until the locals had again been in the field that they broke loose with an offensive, which, mixed with very inferior defensive work on the part of some of the Saints, piled up a commanding lead.

Score Five in Second.
Wulfil dropped a couple of notches because he had not been hitting very consistently, started the fun. He poked a single into left, O'Brien met the first ball pitched to him and poked it into the same hole. The bases were loaded when he drove a base on balls. When O'Brien escaped over the rubber when Wulfil doubled in center and Bayne soon followed when Brumagan doffed a passed ball. Goodwin popped out but the procession was started again when Dolan booted Cleveland's grounder, Wulfil registering. Meyer poked a single to center and then Dolan chased the chief to the bench selecting Caporal to attempt to lay the long out. Davis tied out to the lonely out. Connally was called out while Connally was racing half back to the diamond. Cleveland scooted to third, whence he scored on a delayed double steal aided and abetted by Captain Meyer's dash toward second.

Tulsa gathered two more in the fifth when Davis walked, Brokaw doubled and Brumagan again helped out with a passed ball. Wulfil's hard smash to right sent Brokaw home.

The fifth round of the game was recorded in the seventh, the Muskies finding out what Wulfil delivered his third hit—a single to right, which drove Davis to third. Again the double play was attempted. Kelleher had the last kick to Brumagan in time to catch Davis sliding, but the catcher dropped the ball.

Rain at Wichita.
WICHITA, Kan.—A rain prevented the last game between Musk City and Wichita today. A shower lasting an hour in the afternoon made the grounds too wet for play. Omaha comes here Wednesday.
